From

To

The Dy: Commissioner
Mysore District

Sir

With reference to the enclosed docket from the Comptroller, I beg to point out that the allowance of ~~Rs~~ 50 which I now draw is not personal allowance it is my Local allowance as Police Superintendent of the Mysore District. A similar allowance being granted to the Superintendent of the Bangalore District I used to draw it there but it ceased when I was trans-ferred to this District. On the matter being represented to the Government I was allowed to draw the same allowance of Rs 50 by order No. 9506-7 dated 5th March 1890.

Govt.
In this order it is clearly stated that I should draw the allowance as long as I am employed in this District. If it was a personal allowance I can understand it ceasing with my temporary promotion but as it is not so I cannot see how the promotion can affect my local allowance.
If you agree in what I say I beg of you to forward on this letter with such remarks as you may deem proper.
for early orders
